

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT
NO. 14-4544

UNITED STATES

Appellee

v.

MARK ARANJO

Appellant

APPELLANT'S MOTION TO RESCIND THE BRIEFING SCHEDULE

Now comes the Appellant and respectfully moves this Court to issue an order rescinding the briefing schedule.

As grounds for this motion, Appellant respectfully shows the Court as follows.

The undersigned appointed counsel has conferred with the Appellee's counsel, Assistant United States Attorney, who does not oppose this motion seeking to rescind the briefing schedule. The brief is currently due on September 15, 2014.

Counsel was just appointed on August 21, 2014, and has received none of the record materials, and has been unable to yet have any attorney client contact.

There would be no prejudice to either party to rescind the scheduling order until the record materials are available. That will avoid repetitive enlargement motions.

Wherefore, Appellant respectfully prays that the Court issue an order rescinding the scheduling order.
